

DECEMBER 2018

The WAVE e-news

Photo by Stephanie Sutton

Julia Penny's series of immigrant portraits called From All Walks of Life has been turned into a big red book of the same name. The stories are written on the same cradled panel as their portrait which allows the viewer/reader to learn a little about the person.

There are 151 portraits to celebrate Canada's 151st. As an immigrant herself, Julia wanted to give expression to the immigrant experience – from 200 years ago to the present. Available @ Tergersen's & New Iceland Heritage Museum in Gimli and Julia's studio

It's December and the year is beginning its wrap up – we say goodbye to 2018 and soon will welcome the New Year! The Board of Directors and all the WAVE artists would like to wish everyone all the best during this holiday season. As we celebrate in diverse ways let us remember to enjoy the season safely. We want to see you again next year!

Artists are beginning to consider their content for the 2019 WAVE Artist's Studio Guide and your feedback is appreciated and valuable. Therefore, please take a minute or two to share your opinions on the patron's survey, as it helps us greatly with planning our future events.

Thank you to our 2018
Sponsors!

Image thanks to Express Weekly News

The three artists featured this month are photographers with some incredible abilities as you can see. Top left image of the Northern Lights is by Stephanie Sutton. Below that is Fireworks by Alex Reinhardt; bottom right is an image of a Country Church by Michael Long.

The ART of peace begins with you!

Facebook

Instagram

Twitter

Pinterest